- 10 inch screen or larger
- 4GB RAM

- Windows v7.0 or higher

1.15 INSURANCE / VISA NOTIFICATION

As outlined in B.19 in this form, all students are required to hold Kauri approved Medical/Travel Insurance for the duration of their visa and programme. This includes from the date of travel to and from New Zealand.

All accepted students must notify Kauri as soon as visa is received. If travelling from home country, Kauri must be provided with flight details to ensure insurance is appropriate and covers travel to and from NZ.

For students who have purchased insurance through Kauri

This will be arranged to commence 2 weeks prior to start date of the programme, and;

- If a student receives visa earlier than 2 weeks prior and plan to travel to NZ earlier than 2 weeks, it is the student's responsibility to let Kauri know of their flight arrangements.
- If visa is declined or there is a delay, it is the student's responsibility to communicate with Kauri regarding this, otherwise the insurance will commence as planned (2 weeks prior), and will be active until the student requests for it to be cancelled or amended.
- In the case of delays/deferment to a later intake, this may result in the insurance being insufficient and an additional cost charged to the student to extend the insurance.
- In the case of cancellation, the student will receive a refund for any unused insurance plus a cancellation fee charged by the insurance company.

Kauri reserves the right to cancel a student's enrolment if a student fails to notify Kauri of their visa status, and travel plans (prior to the day of departure).

This may mean that on arrival Kauri will inform you that your enrolment is cancelled due to not adhering to our notification requirements.
